Jenkins Fenstermaker Associate

Steven Wellman, a Huntington native and a practicing attorney with the law firm Jenkins Fenstermaker, recently was named the 2005 vice president of finance for the Tri-State chapter of the Society for Human Resources managers.

SHRM is a body of individuals who, by reason of their occupation, are directly involved in the management, administration, development or study of human resources.

As vice president of finance, Wellman is responsible for management of the chapter's business transaction and for the safeguarding of their financial assets. Additionally, he is responsible for the organization's banking functions and developing and presenting a proposed annual budget to the board.

He specializes in general civic litigation and workers' compensation. He has been an associate with Jenkins Fenstermaker for six years. He received his juris doctorate in 1998 from the University of Kentucky College of Law. He also served as executive editor for the Journal of Natural Resources & Environmental Law in 1997 through 1998.

Jenkins Fenstermaker, PLLC, is a 19 lawyer, multi-practice, full-service law firm with a state and regional practice based in Huntington.
